Call to Worship:

Leader: Out of the depths I cry to You, O Lord.

People: Lord, hear my voice and be attentive to my prayer.

Leader: Jesus said, "I am the resurrection and the life."

People: We come to worship the one who gives us eternal life.

Leader: Come, let us worship the Lord of life and hope.

All: We lift our hearts to the one who breathes life into dry bones! Gracious and forgiving God, we confess that our bones are often lifeless and dry, consumed by fear and doubt. We forget Your promise of new life in Christ. Forgive us and fill us with Your Holy Spirit, that we may live for You. We pray this in the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit. Amen.

Don't forget your Easter baskets!

Worship is so much more than songs of praise or lifting our hands in awe and wonder. Worship is an act of our whole being, offering ourselves to the God of all Creation humbly and with deepest thanks, in full and complete surrender.

When we worship, we pour out our spirits to Him in a way that has no material equal. As Jesus taught in the Gospel of John, God is Spirit, so we truly worship Him in spirit.

It is not an event or something we do for others to see, but instead proper worship is something that happens in our innermost person, in the secret places of our hearts.

Something to Consider

"Worship has to do with far more than public acts performed in church. In Wesleyan theology, worship embraces the whole of life--our relationships, vocations, and daily actions--so that believers continually live out their relationship to Christ in both deed and thought." -Rev. Dr. Constance M. Cherry, Professor Emeritus, Indiana Wesleyan University

*"God is Spirit: and they that worship him must worship him in spirit and in truth. Such is the worship which the Father requireth. To worship God in spirit implies that we worship him from our heart, with the inmost powers of our soul."
-John Wesley, Founder of Methodism*

"God is Spirit, and His worshipers must worship Him in spirit and in truth." -John 4:24

The Empowerment Team is looking for volunteers!

We want to get at least two people from each congregation to volunteer to help Pastor JT track some of our members who are falling through the cracks.

It's important to keep track of our family members and make sure we are doing all we can as we take this faith walk together.

We are looking for you to come into the office on Monday or Tuesday and call the folks who have missed two weeks in a row. Please don't worry about what to say. A script will be prepared; we need your friendly voice on the other end of the church phone.

We are wanting to implement this as soon as possible.
PLEASE LET DIANE DURDEN (770)853-6053, OR TRACI COURSEY (352)235-7132 KNOW IF YOU ARE INTERESTED.
