The Blessing

A Covenant Prayer in the Wesleyan Tradition

Blessing and Dismissal

Holy Communion

Ye that do truly and earnestly repent of your sins
And are in love and charity with your neighbour
And intend to lead a new life, following the commandments of God, And walking from henceforth in His holy ways;
Draw near with faith, and take this holy sacrament
to your comfort,
And make your humble confession to Almighty God.

Come to the Lord's Table all who love Him
Come to the Lord's Table, Confess your sin
Come to the Lord's Table and find pardon
Come to the Lord's Table and be at peace

Lord, help our unbelief, Cleanse us Lord, Heal us Lord

On the night of Your betrayal, Lord Jesus, You took bread, Blessed it, broke it, gave it to Your disciples and said,
"This is My body which is given for you.

Do this in remembrance of Me."

You did the same with the cup after the supper, saying,
"This cup that is poured out is the new covenant in My blood."

And so, in remembrance of all You have done to save us
We offer ourselves to You in praise and thanksgiving
As a holy and living sacrifice, in union with Christ's offering for Us, we proclaim the mystery of our faith:

Christ has died. Christ has risen. Christ will come again.

Pour out Your Spirit on us and these gifts
Make us, through them, Christ's body alive in the world
(Please come forward to receive communion)

Lord, You have set Your servants free
For these eyes of ours have seen the Saviour Whom You have prepared for all to see Blessing and Honour and glory are Yours now and forever.
Amen.

REEL IN HOPE
THIS MAY!

The book of Proverbs describes wisdom as a path that leads to a flourishing life. It also warns of the folly of worldly wisdom as a path that leads to the grave. Everyday we face the choice between the true riches of God's instruction or the fool's gold of earthly pleasures and pursuits. Come and place your feet firmly on the path to life revealed in the book of Proverbs.
